Automatic Salt Works

Lima, near the town of Huacho, is one of the great curlosities of nature-a salt factory on an automatic plan. When the tide comes in, it fills a lot of shallow basins, and the water is prevented from flowing back into the sea by closing the gates. The atmosphere is so dry that the water evaporates rapidly and leaves a sediment of salt in an almost pure state, which is scraped up, packed into sacks and shipped to market. Within the coast a little further the percolation of sea water through the porous rocks into pits and bollows has caused immense deposits of salt to accumulate. The salt is taken out in blocks six or eight inches square and sold in that form. As soon as the salt is excavated the water comes in again and in a year or two has solidified and is ready for the market. Wells driven into the sand disclose strongly impregnated water at a depth of 25 feet, which seems to be a great deal heavier than the sea water, and is drawn off into vats for evapora-

Nothing New Under the Tent. I wandered to the circus, John. I sat beneath the tent and saw the man from Borneo, likewise the tattooed gent. I heard the toothless lions howl. while men in spangled clothes stepped fearlessly into their dens and whacked them on the nose. I saw the sacred elephant spout water through his trunk, the salamander eating lead and other melted junk. I heard the merry clown get off the jokes we used to know when we were boys together, John, some 20 years ago. The same old borses waddled round the same old kind of ring, the same old comic vocalists proved that they couldn't sing, the same old hippopotamus was grunting with dis-gust, the same old Persian ox was kicking up the dust, the same old rheumatic acrobats crawled painfully round, and the ossified contortionist was crawling on the ground and ladies rode barebacked steeds to music sad and slow-the same old girls we used to see some 20 years ago.-Minneapolis Messenger.

Thought He Knew Him.

Dr. Conan Doyle is a methodical worker and a hard worker. He pastes up over his mantelshelf a list of the things he intends to do in the coming six months, and he sticks to his task until it is done. He must be a great disappointment to his old teacher. When he had finished school, the teacher called the boy up before him and said solemnly: "Doyle, I have known you now for seven years, and I know you thoroughly. I am going to say something that you will remember in after life. Doyle, you will never come to any good!"

Still the Woman Objected.

A certain Dyersburg woman assured her husband she never told him a lie and never would. He told her he did not doubt it, but would hereafter cut a notch in the piano when he knew she deceived him. "No you won't!" she screamed. "I'm not going to have my Designated Depository of the piano all ruined!"-Tennessee State Ga-

ROBERT T. GRIMES, Importing Tailor and Men's Furnisher,

No. 2 Prince street.

No. 322 King St., Alexandria, Va. No. 1335 E St., n. w. Washington, D. C. I believe it is possible to build up a much larger tailoring business in Alexandria than has ever existed here. I believe also that has ever existed here. I believe also that while PRICES is a factor, the first and mos important thing is THOROUGHLY GOOD WORK. In other words while men want low prices they also demand good cloth and well cut, and well made garments. I have bought both here and in Europe a bigger stock of high g ade cloths than usual, and at advantageous prices. I have the heet workmen. Triple Plate per half dozen reduced from tageous prices. I have the best workmen that money can hire and I'm attending right to business myself as I have been these tweive years I have carefully counted the cost of everything; I have figured not how much such work should bring, but how little I can delife and I'm eving to make the price. Sectional Plate per half dozen reduced from do it for, and I'm going to make the price $20 PER SUIT, and Robert T. Grimes's well cut, well made TROUSEES at $5. ROBERT T. GRIMES, Naval, Military, Clerical and Livery.
